- (iii) any local authority or police authority within whose jurisdiction any part of proposed areas or routes lie.

SCHEDULE

Reciprocal Transport Agreement between the Government of Gujarat and Goa Administration

This Agreement entered on this day the September one thousand nine hundred seventy one between the President of India (hereinafter called the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu) of the one part and the Governor of Gujarat (hereinafter called the Government of Gujarat) of the other part.

Whereas it is expedient in view of the rapid economic development of the country to encourage the inter-state transport of passengers and goods between the States of Gujarat and Goa, Daman and Diu and to regulate, co-ordinate and control their operation, it is necessary in the interest of the public in general to enter into a reciprocal transport agreement between the two States.

Now, Therefore, in supersession of all the previous agreements in the matter of transport arrangements entered into between both the States, the Governments of Gujarat and Goa, Daman and Diu, hereby enter into this agreement on the terms and conditions set out hereinafter:—

I. Stage carriages:

(1) (a) The inter-state routes for stage carriages shall mean the routes connecting main nearest traffic points on either side of the border, and penetration of passenger transport by one State into the other State being restricted upto the aforesaid traffic points unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in any particular case or cases.

(b) The inter-state routes agreed to be operated by operators of two States are as follows:—

- N. B. 1. The route Diu-Nava Bandar will be operated as and when steam-ship Co. provides connection at Nava Bandar.
2. The Services on the route Diu-Kodinar will be extended upto Veraval by the G.S.R.T.C. in Gujarat area.

(c) The ratio of stage carriages to be run by each of the reciprocating States shall be in the ratio stated above on the inter-state routes specified in clause (b) above, and if the normal traffic warrants, extra trips on the above routes shall be in the ratio stated above, with prior consultation of the reciprocating States.

(d) Both the States will make arrangements for booking through traffic feeding into the traffic points on either side.

(e) The maximum fare and freight chargeable shall be as may be prescribed by each Government in its territory.

(f) Any extension, modification or variation of inter-state routes shall be permitted after joint approval of the transport authorities of the respective States.

(g) Any extension, modification or variation of a portion of an inter-state route lying exclusively in the Home State may be made by the transport authority of that State, in respect of the services run by the operators of transport authority of the reciprocating State, under due intimation in writing to the reciprocating State.

(h) Proposals for opening new inter-state routes shall be forwarded to the Transport Authority of the States in whose jurisdiction the major portion of the route lies.

(1) No tax under the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act of the reciprocating State shall be payable by the permit holder of one State to the other State, provided the tax as due in the Home State is already paid. The above tax exemption is applicable to the stage carriages plying regularly on inter-state routes, as per clause (b) above and also such inter-state routes as may be agreed to in future. However, tax on passengers shall be levied by each State at the rate prescribed, if in force, in reciprocating State.

(2) It is agreed that the status quo of operation of stage carriage services on all the inter-state routes shall be maintained by the Gujarat State Road Transport Corporation, Ahmedabad, until such time a Nationalised Transport Undertaking is set up by the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu for operation of the services on the routes allocated to the nominee of the State.

II. Public Carriers (Goods Trucks) Pucca:

It is agreed that permits for 20 (twenty) vehicles for public carriers shall be countersigned by the Transport Authorities of either State.

Such countersignatures shall be granted for three specified routes, connecting specified terminals by the shortest routes. The countersignatures shall be subject to the following conditions:—

- that such countersigned vehicles shall not be used for picking up and setting down goods between any two points within the jurisdiction of the reciprocating State i.e. the countersigned vehicles shall not carry any intra-state traffic of Goods of the reciprocating State.
- that the countersigned vehicles shall be subject to the provisions of countersignature under the respective laws, rules and regulations of the Home State.
- no tax under the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act in either of the State shall be payable by the permit holders of one State to the reciprocating State, provided the tax as due in the Home State is paid. However, tax on carriage of goods at the rate prescribed, in force, in reciprocating States shall be payable.

III. Private Carriers:

It is agreed that permits for two vehicles for private carriers by each State shall be countersigned by the Transport Authorities of the either State. Such countersignature shall be for the specified route/routes connecting specified terminals by the shortest routes in either State, subject to the following conditions viz:—

- That such countersigned vehicles shall not be used for picking up and setting down goods between any two points within the jurisdiction of the reciprocating State i.e. the countersigned vehicles shall not carry any intra-State traffic of Goods of the reciprocating State.
- That the countersigned vehicles shall be subject to the provisions of countersignature under the respective laws, rules and regulations of the Home State.
- No tax under the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act in either of the States shall be payable by the permit holder of one State to the reciprocating State, provided the tax as due in the Home State is paid. However, tax on carriage of goods under the existing law in the reciprocating State, if any, shall be payable.

IV. Temporary Permits for Goods Vehicles (Public and Private):

The number of temporary permits for public and private carriers i.e. goods vehicles to be issued per month is agreed at 10 vehicles in respect of each State.

- (a) Such temporary permits shall be issued without prior consultation, concurrence or countersignature or the reciprocating State, provided the necessary intimation soon after issue of the temporary permits indicating the name of the permit holder, the registration mark of the vehicle, the routes covered by the permit, the validity of the permit etc. is given to the reciprocating State;
- (b) The temporary permits shall be valid for one calendar month or part thereof, for one specified route irrespective of the number of trips made during the validity of the permit.
- (c) The temporary permit so issued shall be subject to the following conditions:—
 - (i) that no goods are picked up and set down between any two points in the reciprocating State.
 - (ii) that the vehicles operating on temporary permits shall be liable to pay the motor vehicles tax for the calendar month or a part of the quarterly tax proportionate to the complete calendar month for which or a portion of which the temporary permit is issued, in addition to any other tax leviable in the reciprocating State.
 - (iii) The Home State on production of proof for having paid the tax due to the reciprocating State shall issue the permit, without the need for the countersignature.

7. (A) Contract Carriages (Taxi Cab):

It is agreed that the permits for contract carriage shall be countersigned by the transport authorities of either State upto the maximum of 20 (twenty) vehicles out of which three vehicles shall be allotted for Diu area. The grant of permits for taxi cabs under this clause shall be subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) the taxi cab shall not have a seating capacity for more than six persons including the driver.
- (b) the taxi cabs shall not include station wagon of any description.
- (c) the taxi cab shall be hired by a single party.
- (d) the taxi cabs of Daman area shall ply on Daman-Vapi route only.
- (e) the taxi cabs of Diu area shall ply on Diu-Kodinar and Ghoghla-Una routes only.

2. Such contract carriage vehicles are liable to payment of taxes under the existing laws both in the Home State and the reciprocating State.

3. The Transport Authority which countersigns the permits issued by the other reciprocating States can cancel or suspend the countersignature, for non-payment of taxes due or for breach of any permit condition.

V. (B) Contract Carriages (Buses):

It is agreed that contract carriage permits for two buses owned by the Nationalised Undertaking of each of the reciprocating State shall be countersigned for the area of the other reciprocating State. The contract carriages plying under the authority of the countersignature shall be exempted from the payment of motor vehicles tax in the reciprocating State i.e. these Vehicles will pay motor vehicles tax to the Home State only.

However, passenger tax, if any, payable in the reciprocating State shall be payable according to the provisions of the Passenger Tax Act and rules of the concerned State.

VI. Contract Carriages (Taxi-Cabs) Temporary:

It is agreed that temporary permits for contract carriages (taxi-cabs) may be issued by the transport authority of either State to a limit of two taxi cabs per month for a specified inter-state route, connecting specified terminals without prior concurrence. The validity of such temporary permits shall be normally for a period not exceeding seven days. The grant of such temporary permit shall be subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) the taxi cab shall not have seating capacity of more than six persons including driver.
- (b) the taxi cab shall not include station wagon of any description.
- (c) the taxi cab shall be used by a single party.
- (d) the taxi cab shall be used for a single return journey.
- (e) the motor vehicles tax shall be payable to the reciprocating State for the calendar month in which the temporary permit so issued may be valid.

The authority issuing such temporary permits shall ensure that the tax due to the other State has been paid in advance before the permit is granted to the applicant. Information about the grant of temporary permits under this clause, stating the registration mark of the vehicle, the seating capacity of the vehicle, fuel used, the name and address of the permit holder, the route for which the permit is granted, the period of validity of the permit, amount of tax paid alongwith the particulars of the remittance etc. shall be furnished as soon as possible to the Director of Transport of the reciprocating State.

VII. General:

It is agreed that the reciprocating State shall accord recognition to the tax tokens, registration certificates, conductors licences, public service authorisations, certificate of fitness, or such other documents issued by the respective State Governments under any law for the time being, in respect of the vehicles plying in the reciprocating State.

The vehicles registered in each State shall be liable to be covered under valid third party insurance and shall be produced on demand by a reciprocating State, without which the vehicles shall not be allowed to be plied in the territory of the reciprocating State.

The vehicles owned by the Governments of the reciprocating States and used for non-commercial purposes shall be exempted from the payment of taxes due to each reciprocating State.

Non-transport motor vehicles in respect of which taxes as payable under the law in force in the respective States, when paid, shall be exempt of from payment of any further tax in the reciprocating state.

From the date this agreement comes into force, the transport authorities of the respective States shall not issue permits to vehicles other than those registered in the Home State.

This agreement shall be valid for a period of three years from the date of ratification of this agreement by the respective State Governments or till such time as a new agreement is arrived at or it is rescinded after issue of three months notice on either side.

This agreement may be reviewed annually for any revision of the terms, if necessary.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have set their hands to this agreement on the day aforesaid.
